Short note on the workshop:

The NDLI (National Digital Library of India) Awareness Program was conducted on March 23, 2023 by QIC, Library and the Training Cell, Symbiosis Statistical Institute, Pune, for the students of B.Sc. Batch 2022-2025 and M.Sc. Batch 2022-24. The speaker of the workshop was Ms. Manali Choudhury Sengupta, Senior Outreach Manager of NDLI Club.

Samruddhi Shanbhag, a student of M.Sc. Applied Statistics (Batch 2022-2024) commenced the workshop by introducing the speaker, which was followed by the e-lamp lighting ceremony. Prof. Dr Sharvari Shukla, Director of Symbiosis Statistical Institute, briefed the students about the program. Ms. Manali gave an overview about the NDLI Awareness Program and further brought to notice about the availability of the different genres of books for students on the NDLI portal. The speaker also mentioned about the large active student user base and the collaboration with many schools and institutions.

The speaker familiarized the students with the registration process, and further elaborated upon the types of memberships and different events organized by NDLI. She also demonstrated the importance of the NDLI portal for students in various fields of research, journals, reports and further resources. The workshop concluded with Q&A round, wherein students posed their queries, which were clarified by the speaker. Overall, the program was very informative and insightful for the students.
